

Want to Save a Life? Want to Protect our Youth?

Human Trafficking impacts our community every day.

- Learn how you can recognize the signs
- Protect our youth
- Learn how to help

An eye-opening evening with Rev. Dr. Bonita Laudeman and Lt. Wendy Reyes from the Oakland County Sheriff's Office. Dr. Laudeman trains staff to recognize the signs of trafficked victims and how to help them. Dr. Laudeman and Lt. Reyes will present to adults and high school youth.

Middle high youth and their parents will see a film and interact with the chairman of the Michigan Abolitionist Project which works to prevent human trafficking. Parent permission is required for students.

Free, walk - in child care available during the event.

We welcome all youth and adults in the community to attend.

Please RSVP to 248-651-9361 or stpaulsrochester.org

St. Paul's

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
620 Romeo St., Rochester, MI 48307
stpaulsrochester.org

Sunday,
October 22
6 p.m.