

End Exploitation: An Immersive Experience

Survivor Resilience Station Follow-up

The purpose of this station is to honor the strength and resilience of Survivors of Labor Trafficking: the men, women and children whose trafficking experiences you read about or watched.

But they are not just their trafficking experiences.

Trafficking is a chapter in their lives, not the whole story.

It has helped shape their lives, but they are more than this.

They are teachers, social workers, nurses, lawyers, real estate agents, authors, nonprofit leaders, designers, cosmetologists, entrepreneurs, students, moms, and dads. They are living in our communities and bravely continuing to live each chapter of life as it comes.

More Resources:

Break the Chain Movie

Healing From Trauma Online Gallery

Survivor Created Resources

Unstoppable Video Clip

Telling the Real Story of Human Trafficking Guide

**Special thank you to Survivor Consultant Kwami Adobe-Herrera for his leadership, expertise, and direction throughout this entire project. Also, thank you to The Framework TA for their generosity with their resources! We are grateful!*